To support this, we seek to ensure that our recruitment and selection processes are fair and we do not discriminate against candidates. You will not be discriminated against for any of the following reasons:

Safeguarding, Disclosure and Criminal Record Checks

The Vestry is committed to safeguarding as an integral part of the activity of the charity. We believe everyone who participates with church activities is responsible for promoting a safe place even where the role doesn't involve any direct contact with children or protected adults.

You may need a criminal record check from Disclosure Scotland if you're applying for paid or unpaid work, or volunteering.

Disclosure means sharing sensitive personal information. Disclosure Scotland checks and shares information about people's criminal records. This helps organisations to employ the right people for certain types of work, like working with children or protected adults.

The type of check to be used depends on the voluntary or paid work you're doing or the role you are carrying out.

You will need a Basic disclosure for this role.

A basic disclosure is the most common and lowest level of disclosure available. It includes information on any 'unspent' convictions the person has.

Under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974, some criminal convictions can be treated as 'spent' – meaning they're not relevant to basic disclosure – after a certain length of time. Spent convictions are not included on a basic disclosure.

The Vestry is committed to good practice recruitment. We do not request 'unspent' criminal record information during the initial application stage of recruitment. To this end, an applicant will be assessed on their skills and experience, rather than their background, unless strictly relevant to the role.
